Rutland Historical Society and the Rutland Free Library.

DEDICATION

We, the class of Y2K, dedicate this year book of the new millenium to Mr. Remington. Not only has he motivated our class to extraordinary heights as our advisor, but has also instilled the knowledge of the past as our history teacher.

Through the trials and tribulations of highschool, Mr. Remington has prepared us with the necessary skills to thrive in an adult enviroment.

His teaching techniques, although often unappreciated, were the best we could have hoped for. constant demand for respect and maturity will make the transition from high school a little smoother.

Thank you, Mr. Remington, for your perserverence and dedication to our class. You have taught us well and we will never forget you.

Thank You

"And this bird you can not change"

— Lynyrd Skynyrd

Remember 4 years ago when 42 bratty teenagers, knowing everything were orphaned and left stranded, with no one to turn to. You were not given much choice, yet you took on the "impossible" task of "taming the beasts". You showed us the road to maturity and adulthood. You taught us that sometimes we can be fortunate to have someone like you to show us the right path. For some of us you are two special idols in just the beginning of our long journey through life. Thank you for everything Mr. Remington and Mrs. De Oquendo.

"....Its been a sweet love."

— Lynyrd Skynyrd

Thank you, Irene, for all your hard work and dedication through the years.

We appreciate it and will remember you for all of our lives.

CHANGES

"Friends forever," you promised.
"Together till the end."
We did everything with each other.
You were my best friend.

When I was sad, you were by my side.
When I was scared, you felt my fear.
You were my best support---
If I needed you, you were there.

You were the greatest friend,
You always knew what to say.
You made everything seem better.
As long as we had each other,
Everything would be okay.

But somewhere along the line,
We slowly came apart.
I was here, you were there,
It tore a hole in my heart.

Irene M. Dydo
1954—1998

Things were changing,
Our cheerful music reversed its tune.
It was like having salt without pepper.
A sun without a moon.

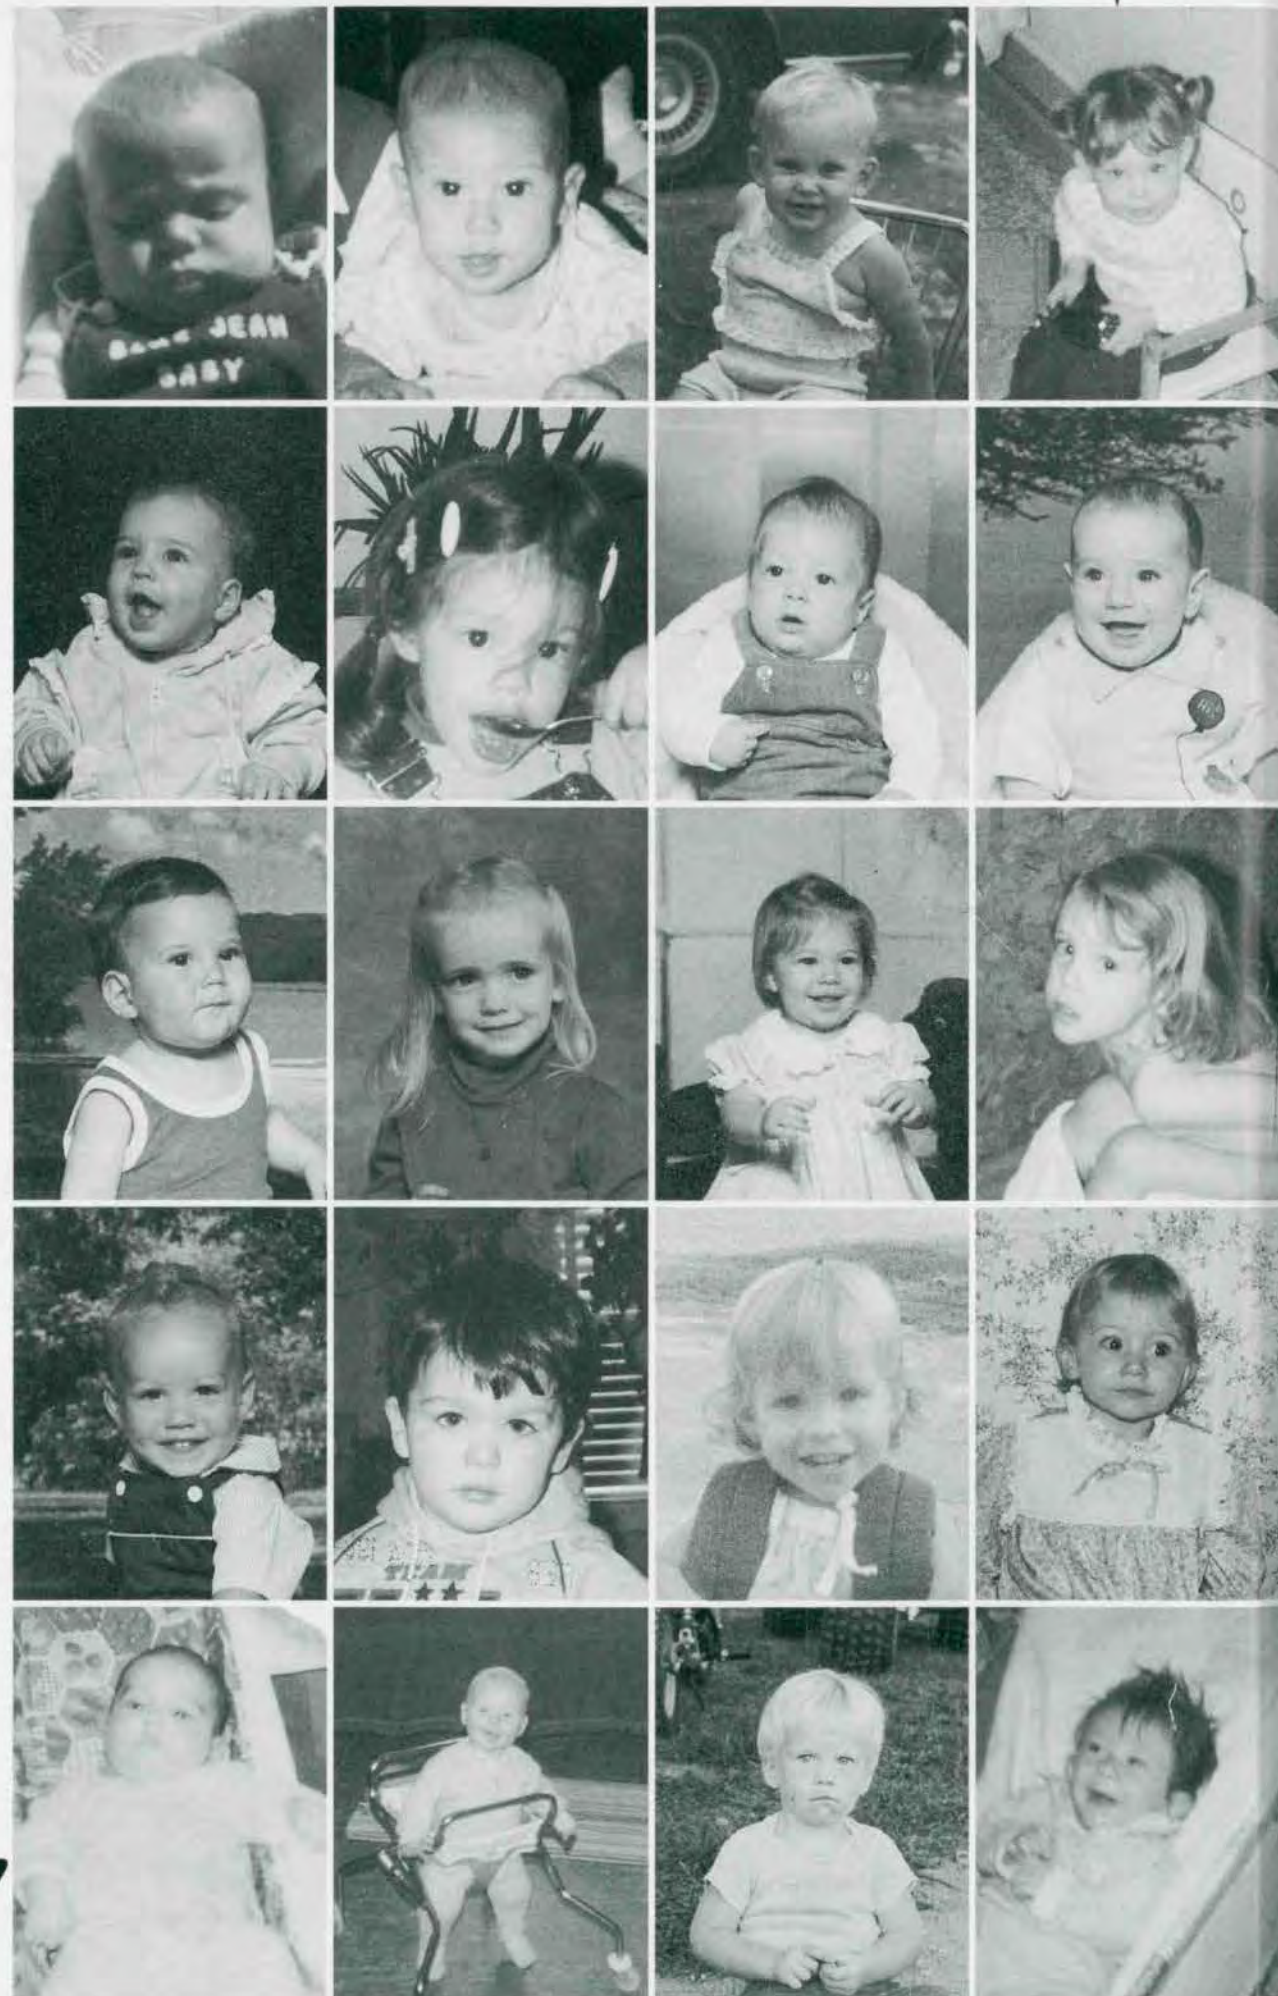

Suddenly we were miles apart,
Two different people, with nothing the same.
It was as if we hadn't been friends,
Although we knew deep in our hearts
Neither one of us was to blame.

You had made many new friends
And luckily, so had I
But that didn't change the hurt---
The loss of our friendship made me cry.

As we grow older, things must change
But they don't always have to end.
Even though it is different, now,
You will always be my friend.

Our student council has cooperatively organized a semiformal , also has developed an after school program to watch after the younger children. Our student council officers are represented by President Michelle Gorham, Vice President Steph Johnson, Treasurer Nicole Bills, and our Secretary Julie Kapitan.

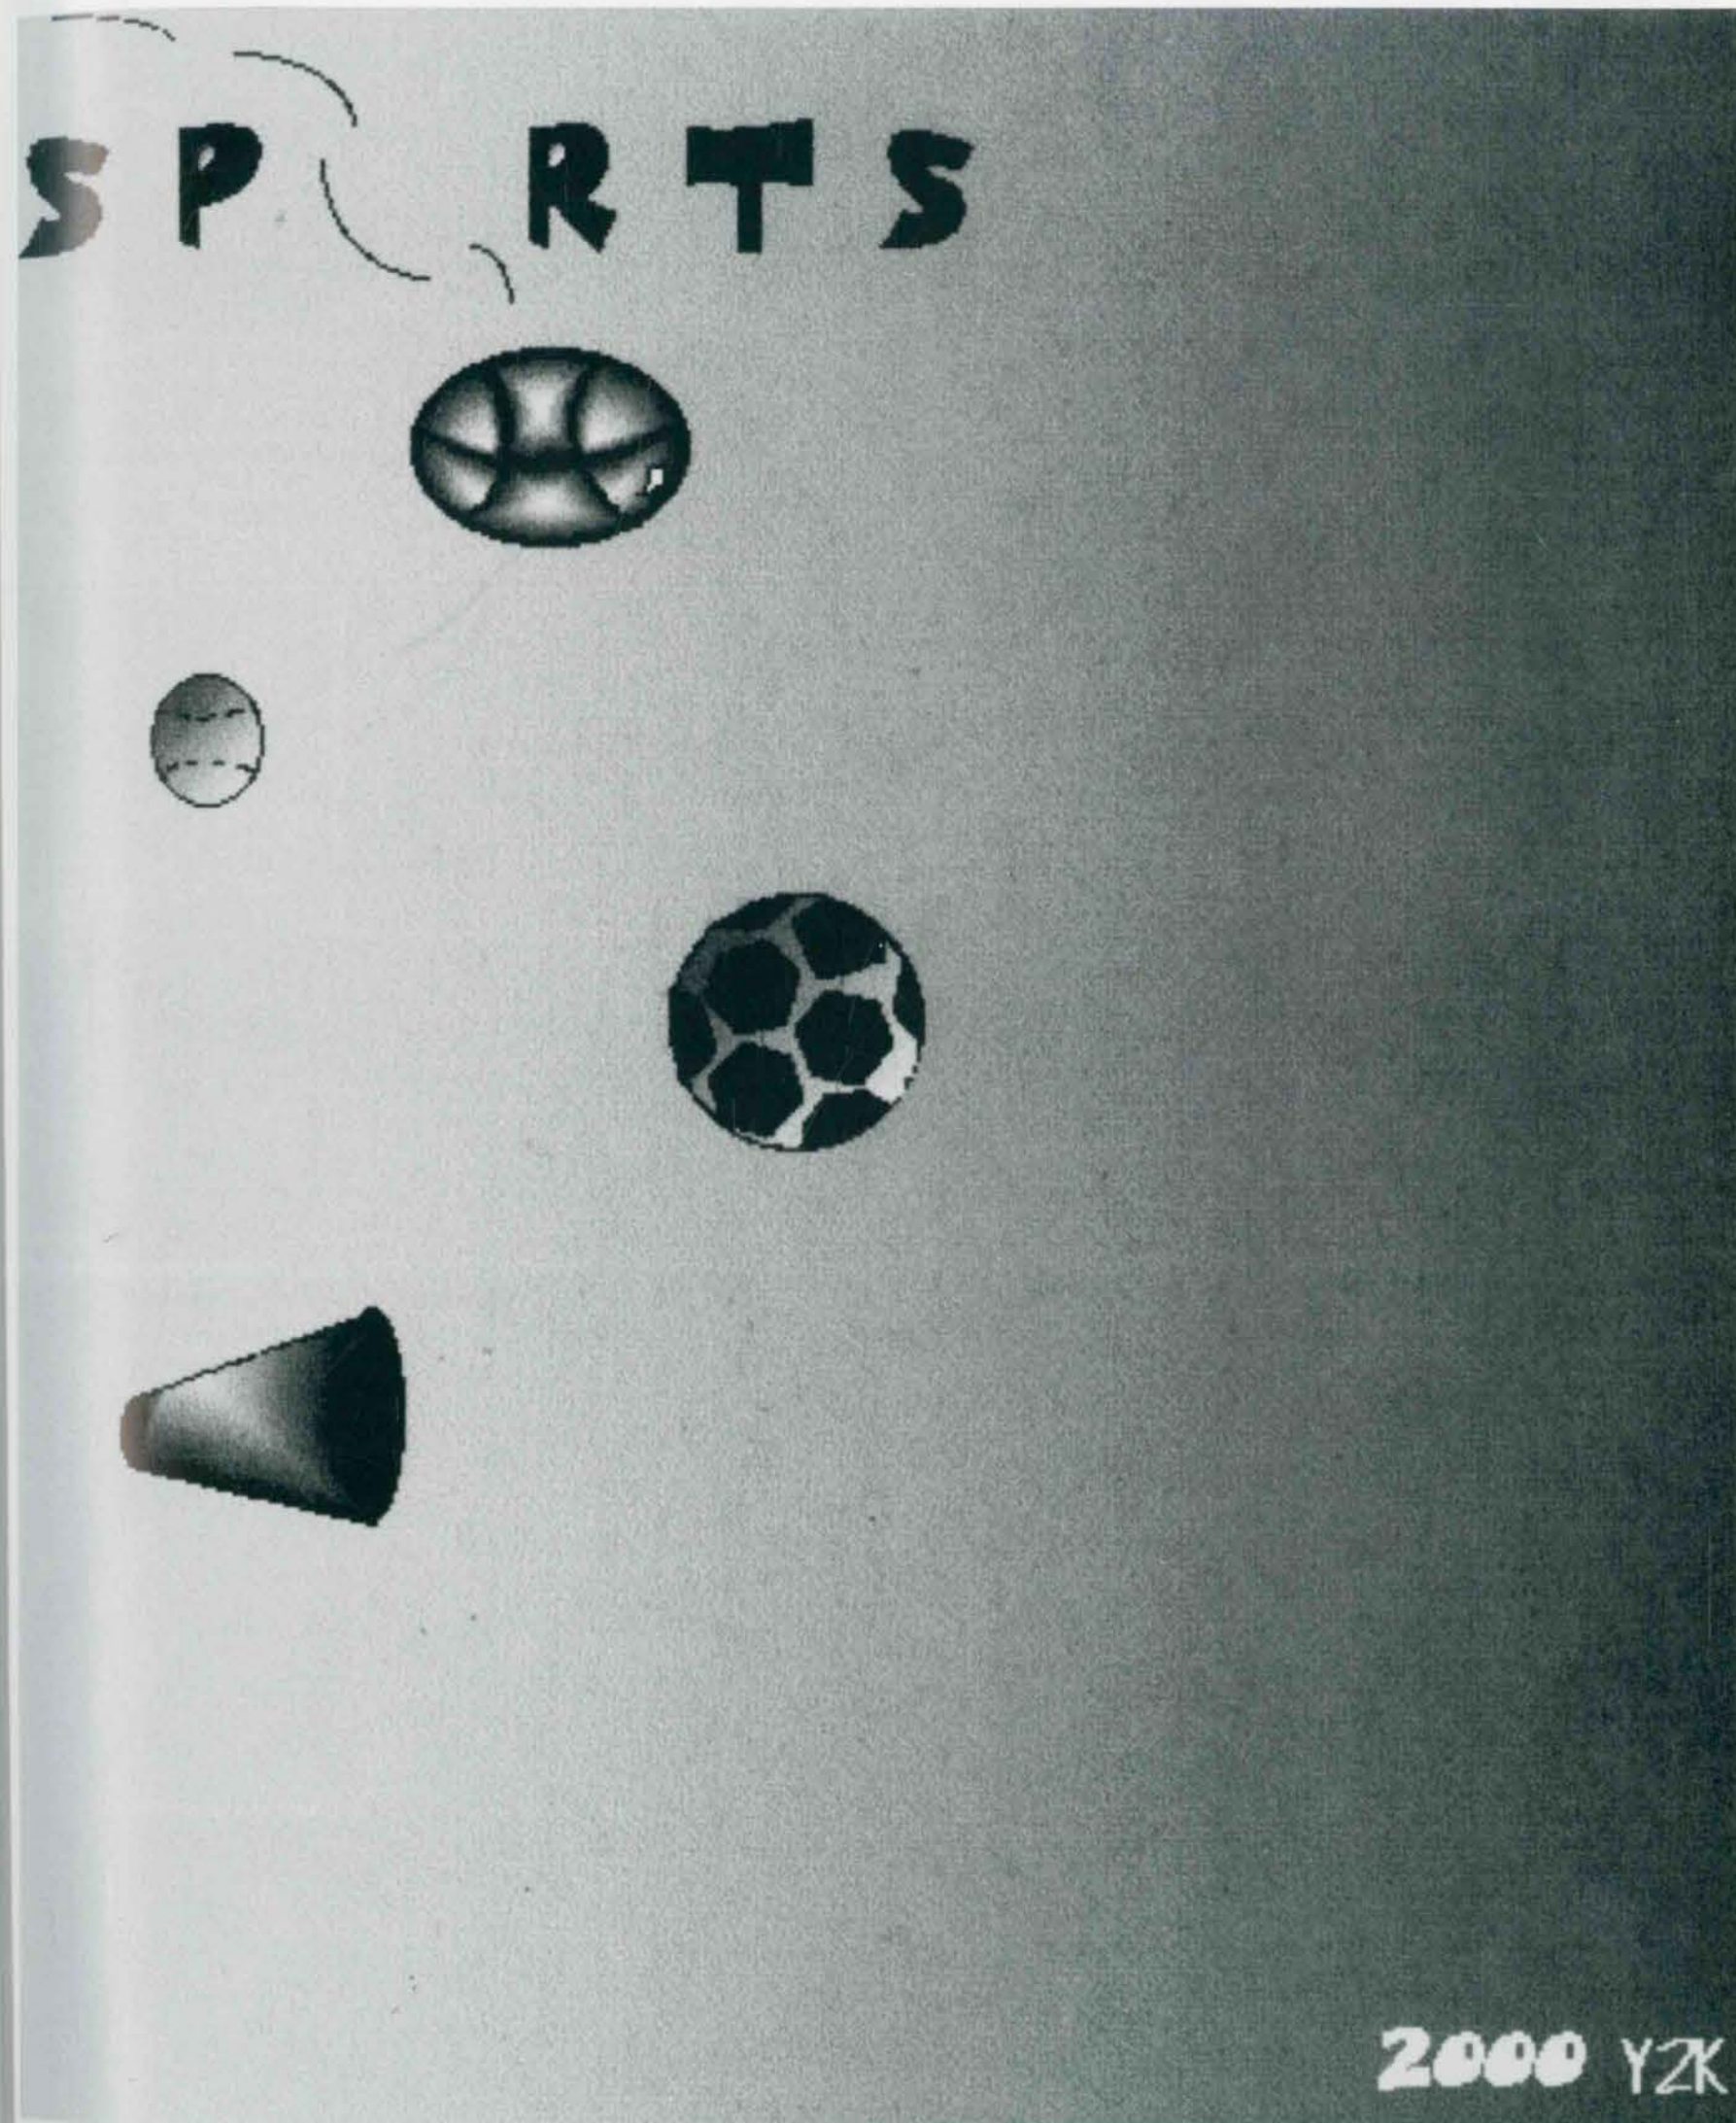

Michelle Gorham (above) desires to unite the student council with the community.

Steph Johnson (above) on the other hand hopes to be able to give to the community both inside and outside of school.

Julie Kapitan focuses on having a sucessfull winter carnival and possibly even a Spring Fling. Nicole Bills aspires to make our student council financilaly secure for the years to come.

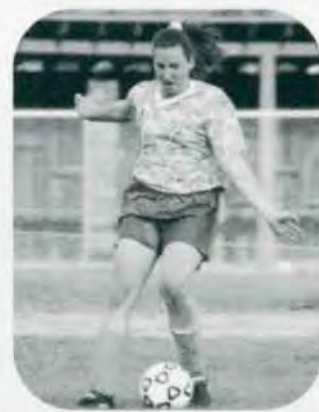

Julie Kapitan #13 : Throughout the past four years Julie has displayed her skill as a forward. She played most of the time at left wing where she was very helpful. As a Sophomore Julie led the team in goals and added 3 more this year.

Krystal Senecal #4 : Krystal was bounced around in many different positions throughout the years, but found herself most helpful up front. She also added a few goals that were beneficial to the team this year.

Stasia Dziubek #21 : As a forward Stasia demonstrated her strength up front, controlling the center of the field and helping move the ball to the goal.

Stefcia Dziubek #22 : While both sisters were new at this game, Stefcia quickly found her calling as a power-house fullback, keeping the ball away from the goal.

Lisa Dydo #18(capt.): Skilled in all areas, she earned the honors of All MVL league and represented girl's soccer to the extreme. Her presence will definitely be missed as our star sweeper.

Randi Sherrer #12(capt.): As a Freshman Randi started out playing half back but was put in a defensive position in which she was always there to back her sister up and was always there to get the ball out.

Steph Johnson #8(capt.): While an injury her Sophomore year took her out for the 1997 year, nothing stopped her in 1999. She controlled the midfield with her quick feet and extensive strategy.

A Record Breaking Season "99"

Since the early 1990's no girl's varsity soccer team has been as victorious, scoring more goals than ever before with 16, building a season record of 7-6-1. Under Coach Maxham's guidance 7 seniors led the team with 3 Juniors, and an eager line of sophomores and freshmen behind. Goalkeeper Candace Sherrer made a step up this year playing on the field, showing not only that she is an astonishing keeper but a player as well. Hopes were high for the play-offs, but in the 1999 season we were bumped up to Division III making the competition harder, even for such a skilled team as ours. After a 3 hour ride Hazen proved to be too much defeating us 2-1 in a close game that relied on the luck of the ball.

All that remains of the 1999 season is the memories; scoring a goal after being scored on(a feat that we couldn't accomplish all season), overtime with the feared Arlington Eagles, and finally defeating Black River under the lights the final game of the season.

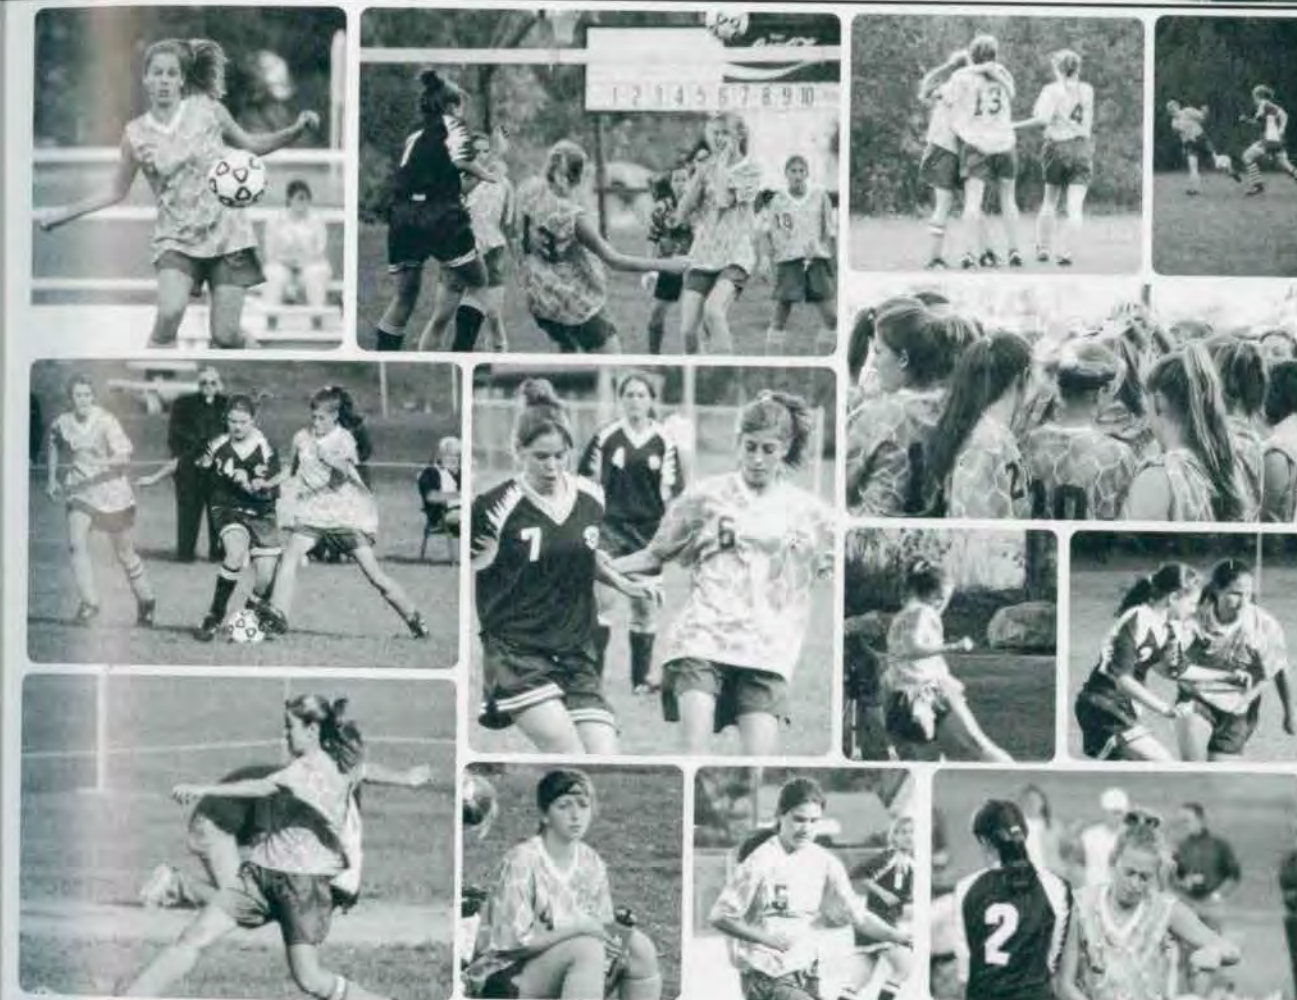

"What are you going to miss most about the Seniors?"

Candace Sherrer: "The thing I will miss most about the seniors is all of their talent and leadership. Next year will be tough without them"

Sarah Laliberte: "I will miss all the fun we had during the past seasons and the leadership they showed to make our team successful."

Kerry Schoenknecht: "I'll miss their skills and it will be hard to replace them on the field."

A Winning Season

There was lots of hard work at the beginning of the season, playing the team's first three games against Division III schools. After losing the first game against Wilmington, the team came back strong. They played one of their best games of the year in a one to one tie against the Arlington Eagles. This was the first time that West Rutland had not lost to Arlington in years. The following week, after the big tie, the team faced against their cross-town rival, Proctor. It was a very physical game. The Hordemen scored the first goal. It looked as if West Rutland was going to pick up their second win in a row! Then the Horde slowed down, and the Phantoms scored a goal. This goal forced the game into overtime. Instead of hanging their heads, the Hordemen stood up to the challenge and scored two more goals in the overtime period to win the big game! This helped the Horde gain a position in Play-offs. With a 6-6-2 record, the team had a bye and then was sent to Twinfield for the second round. It was a very rough game for the Horde, with the Trojans scoring the first goal. After the half, the Horde came out strong, but couldn't put the ball in the net, this ended the season for the team.

Middle Row: Mike Vos, Jon Boynton, Scott Cram,

Justin Boynton shows his hard work and great offensive soccer skills in the West Rutland vs. Whitingham game. He was a great asset this year as a defensive player for the team and will be missed next year on and off the field.

Jesse Fowler plays great defense this game in the victory over Whitingham. As captain this year and last, he showed leadership skills on the field and in the class room. He also made the All League and All State teams this year, he will be missed next year.

Jesse Loomis punches the ball away from a player in the West Rutland vs. Twinfield game. He was also a captain this year and last, and will be missed tremendously after being the Varsity goalie for five years. He was one of the best goalies that this school has ever seen.

Justin Sweet plays great defense against the Whitingham player while saving the ball from going out of bounds. His hard work and intensity was a great asset to the team and he will also be missed next year.

Above: Andy Lee kicks the ball out of the goal area during the Long Trail game. He is also a fullback, but he had to gain some experience in the goal for his upcoming years.

Morgan VanLiew heads the ball down away from the offensive player during the overtime nail biter against the Proctor Phantoms. He was a major aid in the 3-1 victory at the Hinchey field in West Rutland. It will be hard for someone to fill his shoes.

As Coach Carl Serrani's second year coaching varsity girls, he tried his best to teach the skills needed to win. Pictured left is Carl instructing the team before they return to the game.

Although the record didn't show it, the team was made from hard working, dedicated girls. They always had the desire to win, but the cards just didn't seem to be in their favor.

The Starting Five

Junior Candace Sherrer played both a strong outside and inside game. Her ball handling skills greatly complemented the team's overall performance. Candace will be a great leader for the team, taking over her sister's role her final year here at Westside.

Junior Sarah Laliberte contributed her speed and positive attitude to the team. The team may not have come out victorious, but Sarah's optimistic attitude always kept the team in good spirits. She played an intense game from the outside and will be a great asset to the team her last basketball season here at Westside.

Senior Stasia Dziubek contributed to the team great rebounding skills and a strong inside game. Her desire to score showed in her drive to the basket. Stasia's dedication and desire to perform made her a good example for the team. As a captain and leader she will be missed in the following years.

Senior Stefcia Dziubek was also a big help in playing the inside game. She was one of the leading rebounders for the team and top scorers. Her defensive and offensive skills proved to be an essential contribution to the victories of the team. Also as a tri-captain, she was an admirable role-model. She will be missed.

Senior Randi Sherrer, one of our guards, played a tremendous game from the outside. As a ball handler, she was quick on her feet and focused on the ball. She shot a lot from the outside and scored in tight situations. Randi was a good leader as a tri-captain and a strong asset to the team and will be missed next year.

BASKETBALL

Jess Barrows fights her way through the barrier the Mounties have established. An aggressive player, Jess can get through any tough situation.

Patty-Ann maneuvers her way toward the basket. Her quick speed and will power make her a great defensive player.

Kerri Schoenknecht posts up strong for the inside pass. Kerri's desire to play helped the team when they were in tough situations.

Katie Johnson struggles against two tough defenders. Katie, as a swinger, helped the varsity team immensely.

Hustle!

Megan Reynolds goes to the hoop for a shot. Her height and agility make her a strong asset for the team.

Go Westside!

West Rutland takes a time-out in one of their tougher games.

Candace gets a running start as she charges to the basket for a fast break lay-up.

West Rutland J.V. Girls' Basketball

The J.V. Girls' basketball team had an outstanding season this year. They opened their season with several wins, which is always a good way to begin. They continued this precedent until they stepped onto the court against Windsor, but the loss did not stop them from achieving a winning season. The J.V. team came away from this year with a 14-2 winning record, making West Rutland proud and providing for the High School a new beginning for its girls' basketball programs.

THE SENIOR SIX

Stephanie Wedin, a new glove in the outfield, proved to be a stable addition to our defense. She was the most improved defensive player on the team.

Steffie was intimidating on the mound and unnerved opposing batters, leading the team to the finals. For the second year in a row Stefcia was named MVL All Star player.

A strong first baseman, Stasia was a key player to our team, batting fourth and being named an MVL All Star player. She complemented her sister nicely.

Although often overlooked, Jessica Davis was a strong outfielder with a great arm. Her ability to keep the team in positive spirits was greatly appreciated and effectual.

Lisa led the team stats with 34 stolen bases for the year. Her speed was an extra edge to our offense and her glove and accurate arm in the outfield was a great help.

Randi's bunting skills guaranteed Westside a base runner every inning. She showed everyone she could fill second base position well. Randi was honorable mention for the MVL All Star team.

“Though this feeling I can't change.”

— Lynyrd Skynyrd

This team fought tooth and nail for a respectable reputation: Not to mess with the West Rutland Girls!! With a determined coaching staff and a lot of hard work, they finally made a name for themselves.

Our coaches were wonderful this season. They showed compassion and true dedication to the team. Thank you Mr. Max and Paul for an unforgettable season.

The 1999 West Rutland Softball Team hit .490 for the season, had an average of 18 hits per game, 3 errorless games, and managed to turn 3 double plays in the championship game.

Lisa Dydo smacks the ball, giving Westside a runner on base. Batting second in the line up, Lisa gave the team a lot of speed rounding the bases.

1999 -Back in the championships.

The 1999 team, hats down, prepare to battle their way through West Rutland's first championship game since 1990. This feeling is one that these 14 people will never forget.

The loss of the championship game was a tough one, but the team still comes together in the end... They will never forget the accomplishment of reaching this point in their softball careers.

Stasia and Stefcia, putting an opponent in a pickle situation, work together to tag an out. Their positions in the lineup, third and fourth, speak for themselves.

Stephanie Wedin jogs to home plate, confident that she will make it there to score another run.

Sarah Laliberte gets down on the ball to make a swift two handed play. She did well for being new to the third base position, and made for a good utility player.

Candace fields the ball, making a fantastic play. Her skills at shortstop were an asset to the team's defense.

Randi checks out the crowd as the pace of the game slows down. The support from the community was greater this year than in past years.

Jessica and Megan await their insertion into the game and provide the team with support and positive attitudes.

The 1999 Play-Off Game

It was a long season which came to a short end. The play off game was scheduled to be in Canaan, VT. The four hour bus trip to the upper Northeast Kingdom was especially tiring, and definitely filled with plenty of nature's surprises. First we saw nothing but trees, which isn't unusual for the area we were in, but then we saw the most amazing thing that any of us had ever seen up close and personal. A moose! The bus driver told one of the more gullible players how to make a moose call to lure in a few more of the large clumsy animals towards the bus. Not knowing what a real moose call was he believed him and tried it out. It gave us plenty of laughs and got the team psyched up for our game.

It was a very close game, with a battling score. First we were winning, then they were winning. It came down to the wire.

Going into the last inning we were tied 7 to 7.

The team then had it's last turn at bat, but didn't get much accomplished leaving runners stranded on the bases.

Then it was Caanan's turn at the plate. The lead off batter was issued a free pass because Todd Popovitch had pitched the whole game and was very fatigued. The next batter struck out, and the runner had stolen second and third. The next batter up poked a light hit ball towards second, and with a key error the game was over. They won 8 to 7. It was a hard loss for the team, but overall it was a pretty good game.

"It wasn't our best game of the season" stated the coach, "but the kids played their hearts out and suffered the hard loss."

The West Rutland Golden Horde

The baseball team this year had a shakey start with five freshmen, two sophomores, two juniors, and only two seniors. We were a young team, but knew the game very well. Towards the middle of the season we started to pull together and play as a team. In the end, the results weren't what we were looking for, but we played our hardest and put forth our best efforts. Back Row: Coach Michael Caliguiri, Travis Butler, Nicholas Poljacik, Steven Moyer, Jesse Fowler, Randy Barber, and book keeper Stephanie Johnson. Front Row: Michael Wos, Scott Cram, Todd Popovitch, Nathan Poljacik, Matt Muro, Jake Washburn, and bat boy Teddy Washburn.

Todd Popovitch shows his hard work and discipline on the mound this year. He will definitely be missed next year.

Nate Poljacik leads away from first ready for Nick to hit the ball so he can move into scoring position.

Steve Moyer displays his speed and base running abilities this year. He was a major asset to the team, and he will also be missed.

Nick Poljacik gets a good lead from first before he takes off for second. Nick was a major help on the bases this season.

CLASS OF 2003

Freshmen

The Freshmen put forth their best efforts, but just couldn't find the answer that they were looking for. This was the Freshmen's first year participating in the Winter Carnival so they didn't have very much experience under their belts. They showed a very promising future however, as they demonstrated in the tug-of-war by beating the Juniors in the first round to make it into the finals against the Seniors. They could give themselves a pat on the back for placing second in that event. Below they show their artistic ability by making "Sebastian," a crab from the Little Mermaid placing second in that event too.

Although they didn't place first in any of the events, they gained a lot of experience which will help them in their upcoming years. Below Shannon Rajda shows her talent in the sack race which the Freshmen placed third in. The Winter Carnival isn't about who wins or who loses, but it's about who had fun, and it definitely looks like Shannon is having a good time.

The Freshmen had some experience with the talent show because they were fortunate enough to be able to watch all of the past ones performed by the upper classmen, but had never actually had a chance to do one themselves. They got off to a shakey start with a few technical difficulties. After working out all of the bugs they quenched our thirst for humor with the T-Birds and the Pink Ladies, and then ended it with the dedication to the Seniors, which will never be forgotten. Good job Freshmen, you will be major competitors in the upcoming years.

Sophomores

The Sophomores came into this year with a little more confidence knowing that they had one year of experience under their belts. The first event was volleyball which took place after school on Tuesday. The Sophomores placed forth. The next day did not look any better for them. Indoor soccer was the event and they were faced against the seniors who have won this event for the last four years. The Sophomores came out strong and took a quick 2-0 lead going into halftime. It looked like they were going to prevail, but the seniors battled back not wanting to lose and scored three goals in the second half to win. The Sophomores took third place in this event. The last after school event was sliding where the Class of 2002 also came in third place. After all of the afterschool activities, and Friday's events, the Sophomores placed third overall.

Above: Rachel Senecal takes a jump shot to help the Sophomores gain some points on Friday while taking third place in five on five basketball. The Sophomores showed some of their abilities while Scott Cram takes first place in Jello Snorling. They showed their team work in the Sac Relay Race where they came in first place.

Left: The Sophomores did Tarzan for their Spirit Wall. The great drawing by Eric Wedin and the hard work of the class earned them 2nd place..

Right: Is the Sophomore's Snow Sculpture, also from the movie Tarzan. The sculpture also place third.

CLASS OF 2001

Juniors

The Juniors definitely showed that experience prevails. They placed first in 6 events, including the debate in which Connie Soung and Jessica Baker demonstrated their intelligence and quick thinking to the topic of, "Should homosexuals have equal marriage rights in Vermont"? They also placed first in 4 out of 5 of the morning boardgames in the library, winning Monopoly, 45, Battleship, and finally Dominos but losing Scrabble in a close competition.

Above Matt Muro is seen displaying his athletic ability during their 5/5 game against the Freshmen. To the right, Justin Norton and Jake Washburn are seen performing a hilarious skit, which placed them second in the talent show. Jake posing as the crocodile hunter and Justin the feared predator ("the infamous raptor"). They also did a remake of the 1999 suspense movie "The Blair Witch Project".

The Juniors placed first on their Spirit Wall with a colorful rendition of the "Wizard of Oz". They followed their theme with their snow sculpture of Toto in a basket seen above. Below Rudy Boynton is seen during the tricycle race which they also placed first. Overall, the Juniors did very well, and are expected to win as Seniors next year.

CLASS OF 2000

Seniors

To the right, the Senior girls perform a dance to American Woman, their final dance after performing for 5 years during the talent show. In the center, Nate, T.J., and Stasia play a moving version of "Free Bird" with a choir to back them up. T.J. definitely stole the show as he amazed the crowd and in most people's eyes won the talent show for the Seniors. Below, our snow sculpture, a miniature remake of the new Volkswagen beetle, done by the Dziubek twins and Jamie Baker which earned the seniors an obvious first place.

For the past 4 years, the story of the Winter Carnival has been the class of 2000. Whether during athletic events or seen in their artistic ability on spirit walls and snow sculptures it is obvious that there is a wide variety of talent. Again, this year, their senior year, the class of 2000 dominated, winning over 10 events.

The Seniors revolved around the theme of the hilarious comedy "Austin Powers" with their talent show, spirit wall, and snow sculpture. Above, Steph and Luke perform a remake of the movie, "Titanic". Luke as Jack and Steph as Rose. All together, as the snow fell outside, the Seniors came together and won without their normal discrepancies. As T.J. and Nate played their ending to Lynard Skynard's infamous song, the Seniors ended on a good but sad note as most things do your senior year.

“ They were the best of times, they were the worst of times, but after all, they were our times. ”

Remember When.....

Steph, Krystal, Ashley, and Adrienne fell victim to the fashion of the early 90's.

We see Randi never lost her school spirit through the years.

TAKE IT TO THE LIMIT

Last Farwell

I've come to give my last farwell
To kiss these years good-bye;
Twelve years have passed since we opened the doors
But time has a tendency to fly.

I've come to give my last farwell
To move my life along
In many ways we've changed so much
But it's all the same old song.

I've come to give my last farwell
To hold on to times that passed
Standing here today it really seems
That our classes went by to fast.

I've come to give my last farwell
To pave the passage through.
The days we fought were awful
And the arguments we too.

I've come to give my last farwell
To close these open doors
It's time to meet the real world now
A child I'll be no more.

I've come to give my last farwell
Just one more tearful time
Open the doors and cry your tears
And say good-bye to these wonder years.

Things Never Really Change

It is July 24th, 2010 and the Y2K graduation class has planned to reunite at Sweet's Suites. Justin Sweet's stock market investments has proven quite successful over the past few years, and his most recent acquisition in Killington was ideal for a party. Interior design master Jessica Stone was hired to create the perfect atmosphere in Mr. Sweet's brand new building that was constructed by the Chris Hewitt Woodworking Co. Without Stephanie Wedin and Julie Kapitan's help, the party would never have been possible. Julie's career in communications has given her the ability to contact each member of the class, while Stephanie has helped Justin manage his finances. Hotel secretary Brandy O'bara also helps run things smoothly as she checks people off the guest list as they arrive.

The first to arrive in T.J.'s lifted, '79, F-150, is the band Mr. Sweet has hired to play for the evening. Wealthy and renowned, W.M.L.N. (We Make Loud Noises) is performing live. With lead guitarist and vocals, T.J. Sheloski, Justin Boynton on drums, and Jamie Baker as music/audio/visual technician, W.M.L.N. is one of the most popular and successful bands of the decade. Their special effects and displays have helped lead them to fame; it should be quite a show. Following the band will be stand-up comedians Morgan Van Liew and Jesse Loomis, who will perform one of the acts that has made them Saturday Night Live's most popular duos. Nathan Poljacik later arrives with his catering crew and begins to assemble a culinary masterpiece for the mouth. His instructor, Adam Adamitis, graduated from the Culinary Arts Institute in Montpelier and now supervises catering services. With their world-famous recipies, it will be nothing short of delicious, that's for sure.

With a class full of such dynamic individuals, it comes as no surprise that it has produced many rich and successful people. Steph Johnson, Allison Newth, and Ashley Blair all arrive in a black Lincoln Town Car, sporting business suits and briefcases. Their psychology firm has spread throughout New England and each of them runs their own office. They can afford the best attire, so they shop at at Senecal's Secrets, a nation-wide chain founded by fashion designer and old friend, Krystal Senecal. Their extravagant appearance is further enriched by cosmetologist Katryna Ploof who runs the nationally recognized Ploof's Perk-Ups chain.

A Premier bus pulls into the parking lot, and Lisa Dydo, still in uniform, steps out carrying her sports bag. Her soccer game ran a little over, until Lisa finally booted in the winning goal in double-OT. What made matters worse was the fact that the bus broke down. This inconvenience was fixed easily and effciently at Mike's Auto, owned by Michael Rivers who was also going to the reunion. Since Lisa was already on the way, she just made room on the bus and Mike rode with the team the remainder of the trip. Also accompanying Lisa is her physical therapist Randi Sherrer, who is ranked among the best in her field and works with such well-known athletes as Dydo, third-degree black belt Alicia Alvaro, and the NBA's shortest but most talented player, Jesse Fowler.

Next to pull into the lot in a sleek black limosine, and out steps none other than Luke McQuillen, formally dressed and important-looking. His science center, the McQuillen Institution of Science, is one of the best academic environments in the country and is rivaled only by Michelle Gorham's School of Botanical Study. Both centers were enhanced with top-of-the-line computer hardware, provided by Tim Prevendoski, entrepreneur of a national computer software company called Tim Tech.

Adrienne Angier is next to arrive. Her equine studies have been going very well, and she now owns a horse ranch in Arizona. Nicole Oberg has been frequenting the ranch lately and may be interested in a franchise. Having become the world's latest millionaire in the $100 million jackpot, Nicole can afford to persue her love of horses, as well as hire one of the finest vets, Stacey Coleman, to make sure her animals are in top shape. However, the attention soon shifts to the next guest's arrival. A grey van with the logo "Rachel's Rugrats" pulls around. Rachel Orr's day care center remains local, but is a huge asset to the town of West Rutland. Having a great deal of responsibilities of her own, Emily Beckwith visits the center weekly for routine check-ups on the children. She is one of the more sensitive nurses in the area, and is perfect for working with young children.

A white, two-door Saab arrives on the premises. It's true - Saabs do run forever. Out steps Stasia and Stefcia Dziubek and Jess Davis. Jessica plans to carry her studies with her to the reunion. She will be conducting psychological exams for a few individuals in the class who were notorious for exhibiting abnormal behavior. Stefcia walks in wearing her favorite brown vest along with other clothes that are severely out-dated (they were old when she wore them in high school!) Her job as a freelance writer and artist, complemented by her sister, Stasia's, fabulous illustrations, has brought her great fame and fortune, but she still insists on wearing clothes from 1962. Stasia tries to curb Stef's unique fashion sense, but things don't change. People still can't appreciate her style.

Last to arrive is Joe Grandchamp and Jillian Welch. Joe just got back from a busy morning. He has become one of New England's finest game hunters and even has a television show on NESN in which he shares the techniques that have made him so successful. Jillian currently has a job as a childrens' literature critic, and loves working with people.

Nate brings out the hors d'oeuvres and the aging class of 2000 swarms around the tables like a pack of starving hyenas. As largely successful as all of these WRHS alumni have become, it's just like old times -- It's the cafeteria lunch line, a decade later. So it just goes to show: the more things change, the more things stay the same.

you; We know you went shopping, having lunch at the
